e: mwise@kjklegal.com.au

Matilda, or Tilly as she is commonly known in-house, commenced working at KJK Legal as a Law Clerk in January 2022 and transitioned to the position of Solicitor upon being admitted as a Barrister and Solicitor of the Supreme Court of South Australia in April 2022.

Since joining the firm Matilda has had the opportunity to assist all three partners across a variety of practice areas such as workers compensation, dust diseases, national heavy vehicle law, debt recovery, and more. She also helps support Neville conduct our industrial relations advice service.

Matilda graduated from the University of South Australia with a Bachelor of Laws (Honours) and a Bachelor of Business (Human Resource Management). As a result of her studies and her previous volunteer work, Matilda has developed a keen interest in supporting employers navigate all things industrial relations and human resources.

Since joining the firm Matilda has also become an important member of our Business SA work, Health and Safety Publication editorial team, and preparing monthly articles about legislative changes in the area. Matilda has also successfully supported Neville to present on a number of human resources and industrial relations topics at our internal client seminar and private external seminar sessions.
